PREFACE

In 1884, John Hertzler, Sr., of Port Royal, Pa., copyrighted what he called A Brief Biographic Memorial of Jacob Hertzler, and A Complete Genealogical Family History of His Lineal Descendants and Those Related by Inter-marriage, from 1730 to 1883, chronologically arranged, together with the necessary Historical and Other Notes. The family copy of this book belonging originally to my father, Joseph K. Hertzler, formerly of Long Green, Maryland, that has come down to me, was printed by the Mennonite Publishing Company of Elkhart, Indiana, in 1885.

Covering a period of 153 years, this book contained the record of 557 families descending from Jacob Hertzler. It took 279 pages of a rather small-paged book to give these details. The index was printed in 20 pages. 2,354 births are recorded in this history, which is an average of 4.3 children per family. The size range in number of children was from none to 15.

Without the great abundance of accurate details gathered by this intrepid research worker of seventy-five years ago, the present revision of the Hertzler Family History could never have been prepared.

INTRODUCTION

The editor of this family history is grateful to all who have in any way helped in the assembling of the material for this book. For the most part, the data for the families included had to be gathered by correspondence. Many letters remained unanswered. For this reason blocks of families in certain parts of the history are less complete than would have been the case if members of the family had been enough interested to give the information requested. However, the degree of completeness and accuracy which have been reached, is due to the carefulness and persistence of those who went out of their way to be helpful.

The families are numbered from 1 to 8757, each family having its own individual number. The number preceding the name of the head of the family is this family number. The number following is the number of the family of the parents. The small number inset with the name of the family head, represents the number of generations this person is, in the line following our ancestor, Jacob Hertzler.

An index follows the main body of the book giving the family histories. This shows exactly where to find any family head who is a direct descendant. The writer had at one time planned an index of the families which have married into the Hertzler families, but this was given up due to the extra expense involved. Earlier, the writer also considered a geographical index of families, but this also had to be abandoned for the same reason.

JACOB HERTZLER

Jacob Hertzler was born in Switzerland in 1703. He seems to have been at home in Canton Berne, where he and his ancestors were members of the Amish Mennonite Church. This group, at first called Anabaptists, began in 1525. Its members were opposed to any form of state church, to infant baptism, to the swearing of oaths and to participation in warfare and physical violence. They believed that Christian living in itself was the chief task of the follower of God, so they came to oppose participation in any form of governmental action, and to live a life of isolation and separation from others. Extreme forms of persecution had been used for two centuries and finally became so severe that Jacob Hertzler decided to leave his native country.

The records that are available indicate that Jacob Hertzler may have stopped for a few years in the Palatinate, in what is now Pfaalz, in Germany. Religious persecution did not cease there, so he continued his search for Christian peace and freedom, by coming to the American colonies. He travelled by way of Rotterdam, Netherlands, and Plymouth, England, on the ship St. Andrew, and landed in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Sept. 9, 1749.

Our American pioneer had married in Switzerland and had one son John, when his wife died. He was married a second time in Switzerland to Catharine Ruegy, who accompanied him to America. Also with him were his eldest son John, and the three younger children of the second marriage, Jacob, Fannie and Christian. This family history traces the descendants of these three sons, with unavoidable omissions, down to the present time. Fannie married John Kauffman, but details concerning their children have disappeared.

THE FIRST AMISH MENNONITES IN AMERICA

The first Amish immigrants to Pennsylvania, and to America, were Barbara Yoder, her eight sons and one daughter who settled at Crooked Dam, on the Manatawny Creek, in the Oley Valley, in Berks County, Pa., in 1714. The Kauffmans, Fishers and Beilers had arrived by 1737. These Amish at first had no minister, so many of their children were lost to the Amish faith. By 1740 most of the Amish immigrants who arrived in Philadelphia settled along the banks of the Northkill Creek, near the Blue Mountains, in what is now Upper Berne township, Berks County. By 1742 there were enough Amish Mennonites in this settlement, so that the Provincial Assembly granted them, along with the Mennonites and Quakers, the privilege of being naturalized by a simple affirmation, instead of the oath usually prescribed. When Jacob Hertzler arrived in 1749, he moved at once to the vicinity of Hamburg, where he became the first minister and bishop for the Amish settlers. It seems likely that Jacob Hertzler was ordained in Switzerland, or in what is now Pfaalz, in Germany, for the purpose of shepherding the new settlement in what was then the Pennsylvania wilderness.

JACOB HERTZLER AS MINISTER AND BISHOP

C. Z. Mast in The Annals of Conestoga Valley, calls the first Amish settlement in Pennsylvania, the Northkill Settlement. It was located along the Northkill Creek in what is now Upper Berne Township, and became the first organized Amish congregation in the American colonies. It was here that Jacob Hertzler worked, lived, and preached. It was here that he died and was buried on his home farm. Tradition suggests that Jacob Hertzler was a man of almost limitless energy. He labored many hours regularly as a hard working farmer. Then, he walked and rode horseback many miles and many more hours weekly to reach his preaching appointments.

In his missionary and pastoral duties he had charge of the Amish Mennonite settlement in Chester Valley near Malvern, Pennsylvania. One word of mouth account says he walked the sixty miles from Hamburg to Malvern, in two days, when he was eighty years of age. Mast lists Hertzler as the man who organized the Conestoga Amish Mennonite church after this settlement was begun in 1760. He was bishop of this group from 1760-1786 as well as of his home congregation. He also seems to have ordained Jacob Mast as the first minister for this group. The Northkill Amish Mennonite congregation suffered much from the Indians, and perhaps due to this Indian opposition many of the group moved to other parts of Pennsylvania, so there is no Amish Mennonite or Mennonite congregation in this community at the present time.

THE JACOB HERTZLER HOMESTEAD

On July 11, 1927, the writer of this volume examined the deed to the farm at the old Jacob Hertzler homestead. This deed said the farm contained one hundred thirty-seven acres and eight perches of land, plus allowances. This farm being part of a larger tract, was surveyed in pursuance of four warrants. One warrant was dated Jan. 9, 1750, and was granted to Jacob Hertzler. The second was dated October 13, 1752, and was granted to Jacob Hertzler. A third warrant, dated June 23, 1773, also was granted to Jacob Hertzler. A fourth warrant was originally granted on Oct. 19th, 1743, to Christian Yoder. This was transferred to Jacob Hertzler. The details the writer was able to obtain are given in the following paragraphs.

signed by James Hamilton for the proprietaries of Pennsylvania, issued to Jacob Hertzler twenty-five more acres of land, adjoining his other farm, and Benedict Lehman. This was located in Bearne Township in Berks County. The price paid was the same rate as was paid for the land bought in 1750, fifteen pounds and ten shillings per 100 acres. Page 271 of the Copied Surveys referred to above, says when actually surveyed, this warrant gave to Jacob Hertzler 44 acres and 95 perches of land.

A third warrant, dated June 23, 1773, actually signed by Richard Penn, issued to Jacob Hertzler another twenty-five acres joining his previous land in Berne Township, Berks County. The cost was five pounds sterling per one hundred acres.

A warrant was granted to Jacob Hertzler on Jan. 9, 1750, by William and Thomas Penn, the proprietaries of Pennsylvania, for one hundred acres of land. It was signed at Philadelphia by James Hamilton. This land joined Christian Yoder and Jacob Yoder, and was located in what was then Bearne Township, Lancaster County. This farm is situated two miles west of Hamburg, in what is now Upper Berne Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania. The price paid was fifteen pounds and ten shillings for the one hundred acres.

On page 276 of the Copied Surveys of the Department of Internal Surveys of Pennsylvania, C71, I B B, a statement is made indicating that the original warrant, dated Jan. 9, 1750, when surveyed, actually gave Jacob Hertzler 182 acres and 30 perches of land, plus an allowance of six per cent for roads.

A second warrant, dated Oct. 13, 1752,

Page 274 of the copied surveys of the Department of Internal Affairs shows that when this part of the Hertzler farm was surveyed it contained thirty-four acres and allowances.

In a description of the Jacob Hertzler farm dated Dec. 6, 1809, after a re-survey, when a part of the farm was deeded to David and John Hertzler, a statement is made that the original farm surveyed in pursuance of a warrant issued Jan. 9, 1750, was called "Contentment," and contained one hundred ninety acres. The exact and detailed description follows:

THE JACOB HERTZLER CEMETERY

The writer has on several occasions travelled to the Jacob Hertzler farm, and has with much interest visited the cemetery. The stone house now on the farm stands very near the old foundation and was rebuilt in part from the stone used in the house erected in 1768. On the west end of the house, rather near the roof, is the original date stone which states in German, "Built in 1768 by Jacob and Catharine Hertzler for Christian and Elizabeth Hertzler."

Bishop Jacob Hertzler was buried in the cemetery on the home farm two miles west of Hamburg, Berks County, Pennsylvania. For many years no permanent grave stone marked the burial place. In 1900 Jonathan K. Hartzler, McVeytown, Pa., and Ex-Senator William Hertzler of Port Royal, Pa., collected $142.09 and placed a granite memorial over the grave. The following statement was prepared and mailed to the donors of this fund. A copy has come down to the editor of this volume. It is here reproduced in part, as follows:

THE JACOB HERTZLER MEMORIAL

To the Contributors to the Memorial Fund:

Dear Friends:—On November 1, 1900, the undersigned issued "A letter to the Descendants of Jacob Hertzler" in which a plan was outlined for collecting a fund to mark the unmarked and long neglected burial place of our venerable forefather, Jacob Hertzler. See Hertzler Genealogy, pages 13, 14 and 15. Contributions came in until August, 1901. A contract was closed July 5, 1901, for a memorial of dark Quincy granite, 3 feet 10 inches by 2 feet at the base and 3 feet 2 inches high, to be put on a cement and stone foundation three feet deep in the ground. On the three tablets are these inscriptions:

Jacob Hertzler. Pioneer settler. Preacher of the gospel. Born in Switzerland 1703. Came to America 1749. Died 1786.

First wife died in Europe. Second wife, Catharine Ruegy, and second son Jacob buried here.

This memorial erected by some of their descendants A.D. 1901.

After much delay, principally caused by the railroads, the memorial was set over the place where father Hertzler was buried, in the old grave yard, on the old Hertzler home farm, two miles west of Hamburg, Berks county, Pa., now owned and occupied by the family of the late David Becker. The memorial was set in place November 8, 1901, by Steely & Savage of Upper Berne, Pa., under my supervision. Looking up the meadow, beyond the house and barn in the picture, the little graveyard may be seen between the apple trees.

We made no attempt to make a display. We believed it would not have pleased father Hertzler to have an ostentatious nonument set over his grave. But that the burial place of our forefather and family, who planted our family in America, was unmarked and neglected was not a pleasant thought to come in one's mind and it would come in.

The fund you have contributed has sufficed to mark the old family burial spot with a memorial of the finest and most durable granite. The design was chosen with the counsel and approval of several of the friends who were interested in this project.

The Becker family, who also have friends buried there, are deeply interested in caring for the little grave yard and were most hospitable and in every way helpful in getting the memorial in place. The Klines also have friends buried there. One of them, Abraham Kline, Upper Berne, Berks county, holds a deed for the little grave yard. This burial place is full of graves, but in the last century the ground that has washed in and the grass that grew up and rotted down have covered all but three or four of the graves not marked by something larger than the small field stones used.

Extra copies of this circular may be had free, while the supply lasts, by contributors who enclose a stamp.

Let us be thankful that a kind Providence ordained that the old home and grave yard should be in the possession of people with hearts to revere and care for the burial place of their and our dear departed ones.

This circular may be folded to fit in your Hertzler Genealogy, or some other book, where some one of our children finding it, after we are gone, may be led to visit the old grave yard and interest himself or herself and others in keeping it fenced and cared for.

My preference was to make a statement setting forth each one's contribution; some friends, however, preferred to have only their names appear, but my itemized account, with receipts, may be seen any time.

Jonathan K. Hartzler.

McVeytown, Pa., Dec. 27, 1901.

THE HERTZLER MEMORIAL

Father Hertzler's life was long, eventful and crowded full of work. Forty-six years in the old Swiss home; thirty-seven years in America. In the woods near Hamburg, Pa., he and his family began life anew.

Here they found a refuge from religious intolerance. Here in the woods they built up a home simple, clean and comfortable. The sons and daughters were schooled in the family and in the log school house which they erected. Of father Hertzler it may be said:

"He heard God's voice and came;
Brought all he loved across the sea,
To live and work for God and me;
Felled the ungracious oak with horrid toil,
Dragged from the soil

The thrice gnarled roots and stubborn

With plenty filled the haggard mountain

And when his work was done, without

THE HERTZLER-HARTZLER FAMILY NAME

The writer had a photostatic copy made of the signature of our family ancestor. The record kept at the time of his landing in Philadelphia, September 9, 1749, is as follows:

"At the court house at Philadelphia, Saturday the 9th Sept., 1749.

The Honourable the Governor

The foreigners whose names are underwrite their own names. Also most of the signatures were in German script. Jacob Hertzler and his son Jacob were the two of the family ancestors whose signatures appear on this list. The following is an exact reproduction of the signature of Jacob Hertzler.

It will be seen that the original spelling in German, was Hertzler. Many present members of the family use the Americanized form Hartzler. The writer's suggestion is that possibly the pronunciation of the German form of the name suggested the latter spelling. Those who have kept the original spelling no longer have the German pronunciation, while those who changed the spelling have kept closer to the original pronunciation.

CHRISTIAN HERTZLER REUNIONS

The descendants of Christian and Elizabeth Haunstein Hertzler held the first family reunion at Long's Park, near Lancaster, Pennsylvania, on September 1, 1924. This meeting came to have marked significance, for it was the first of a long series of Hertzler family reunions which have been held annually since that time. The officers were Clayton H. Hertzler, chairman; E. H. Zercher, recording secretary; Stella Good, treasurer. 75 people attended.

On August 1, 1925, a second reunion was held at the same place, with the same officers. 74 people were present.

The third reunion was held at Mt. Gretna, Pa., on July 24, 1926. The previous officers officiated. Talks were given by Clayton H. Hertzler and Mrs. Mary Hertzler. There was a record attendance of 263.

The fourth reunion took place on Aug. 11, 1927, at Boiling Springs Park, Cumberland Co., Pa. Officers at this time were, president, Samuel H. Hertzler; first vice president, Earl Hertzler; second vice president, Clayton H. Hertzler; recording secretary, Alice Hersh; corresponding secretary, Beulah Zercher; treasurer, Clayton Stehman; chorister, Clarence Lutz; chief speaker, Rev. W. D. Marburger. 234 people attended.

The fifth group meeting was held on the grounds of Elizabethtown College, Elizabethtown, Pa., on Aug. 16, 1928. Officers were, president, Clayton H. Hertzler; first vice president, Allen H. Hertzler; second vice president, Abram Hertzler; recording secretary, Alice Hersh; corresponding secretary, Beulah Zercher; treasurer, Austin Hertzler; chorister, J. H. Stern; speakers, Rev. Samuel Hertzler and C. H. Hertzler. Attendance was 161.

The sixth annual reunion was held at Williams Grove, Cumberland Co., Pa., on Aug. 22, 1929. President, first vice president, second vice president and the corresponding secretary were the same as for the year 1928. Lloyd Hertzler was recording secretary; John R. Hertzler was treasurer; Clarence Lutz was chorister. Speakers were the five Samuel Hertzlers present and C. H. Hertzler. 216 were reported present.

The last separate reunion of this family group was again held at Long's Park, near Lancaster, Pa. The chief officers were the same people as for the preceding two years. Other officers were, recording secretary, Luella Hertzler; corresponding secretary, Ruth Hertzler; treasurer, John Hertzler; chorister, Clarence Lutz. The chief speaker was Rev. Frank Rosenberger. The attendance was recorded as 165.

JACOB HERTZLER REUNIONS

The descendants of Bishop Jacob Hertzler, America's earliest Amish Mennonite minister and bishop who settled near Hamburg, Pa., in 1749, held their first annual reunion in August, 1925, at the Yellow School House, two miles south of Morgantown, Pa. Detailed records do not seem to have been kept of this meeting.

The second reunion was held on the farm of Abner Hertzler, near Morgantown, Pa., on Monday, August 16, 1926. For meetings of this kind, the attendance was very good. 293 people registered. They came largely from Pennsylvania though representatives were also present from New York, Connecticut, Kansas and Virginia. A rather detailed record was kept of the ten minute talks given at this time by Eli C. Kanagy, John S. Mast, Oscar Burkholder, Samuel H. Hertzler, Sylvanus Stoltzfus, Chris Hertzler, William Hertzler, Penrose Hertzler, John B. Kanagy, and Silas Hertzler.

At this reunion a finance committee was appointed to assist in the payment of the necessary expenses in gathering material for the family history. This committee was composed of Joseph Y. Hertzler, Abner Hertzler and Melvin Hertzler, all of Elverson, Pa. At that time the sum of $275.00 was subscribed, much of which was used for postage, and the printing of the supplies necessary for getting started in gathering the information needed. Little financial aid was given after the original enthusiasm wore off. The editor was left, therefore, to struggle on, almost alone, for the twenty-five years that it has taken to get the book ready for the printers.

The inspiration for bringing the Hertzler Family History up to date is due in part to the overflowing enthusiasm of the 293 people present at this reunion. At that time the writer was asked to gather the data, and edit the new publication. Christian Z. Mast, the writer of the Mast Family History, said then, out of his own experience, that the preparation of such a volume was a formidable task. This has proved to be true. No one, who has not tried a similar venture, knows the hours of prodigious labor and unremitting toil involved in an undertaking of this sort.

Since the editor is emotionally toned in the direction of completeness, and absolute accuracy, it has been hard to give up when details that he knew, almost for certain, were available, could not be secured. The missing information, therefore, which a few may feel should be here, is not presented merely because it was unobtainable.

In 1926 there was a unanimous vote to hold a reunion in 1927. No record is available though it seems certain the meeting was held. The next meeting was held on August 20, 1928 at the Greenwood Furnace Camp site, near Belleville, Mifflin Co., Pa. On August 19, 1929, a similar meeting was held at the J. K. Kauffman farm near Gap, Lancaster Co., Pa., with 332 people present, who registered. Another meeting was held Aug. 25th, 1930, at the Jacob Hertzler homestead, two miles west of Hamburg, Berks Co., Pa. John M. Hertzler was chairman of this meeting, with Melvin Hertzler acting as secretary. 315 people were present.

JOINT HERTZLER REUNIONS

Both the previously described Hertzler reunions decided at their 1930 meetings to unite the two groups, and to hold joint reunions. Annually, beginning in 1931, the two groups of families have met together, at some time during the month of August. An outline of some of the details available concerning these meetings is given in the table which follows.

One little bundle is Called Peggy Lou
A nice little girl
To cuddle and coo.

The other little bundle
Is called Patty Lea
A sweet little name
For a girl so wee.

The next little bundle
Is William Henry
A dear little fellow,
I'm sure he will be.

Now these are the bundles
The town's pride and joy.
Two sweet little girls
And a dear little boy.

Written by Mrs. James Wesley Longabaugh⁶, 7378, the grandmother. (published in the Honey Brook Herald.)

7381 Honey Brook Triplets
Three bundles of sunshine
Three bundles of joy
Two little girls
And one little boy.

8119 Isaac Hertzler⁴, 8119, moved from Morgantown, Lancaster Co., Pa., to Long Green, Baltimore Co., Md., in 1849. Other Amish families that moved into Baltimore Co., Md., about this time were Solomon Yoder, Moses Miller, John Mast, Jacob Waltz, Christ Hertzler, Jacob Hertzler, John Smoker, John Kennel and David Warfel. At first, church services were held in the homes every two weeks, in the forenoon. Later meetings were held in the afternoon, every three weeks.

Sunday School was first organized soon after Isaac D. Hertzler⁵, 8143, was ordained to the ministry in 1894. Joseph K. Hertzler⁵, 8120, was the first superintendent, and was superintendent and chorister for many years. He also taught a class much of the time.

John Mast was already ordained to the ministry when the above families moved to Long Green. Solomon Yoder had also previously been ordained as bishop. Daniel Nafzinger was deacon for the congregation. Andrew Miller, Lewis Yoder and Isaac D. Hertzler were ministers ordained for the Long Green congregation. Later John M. Hartzler⁶, 4249, served as a minister for this congregation. He had been ordained before moving there.

8120 John O. Miller was the son of Moses Miller. Moses Miller was the son of Louis and Mary Ann (Sommer) Miller. See 3039.

Statistical Information on the Hertzler-Hartzler Families

Other Hertzler Families

The editor is sorry that the task of including all Hertzler family lines in this history became too formidable. There are today many families in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and in other areas, bearing the Hertzler name, who are not descendants of Bishop Jacob Hertzler.

A different Jacob Hertzler, from Salford Township, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, purchased property in Lancaster Co., Pa., as attested by a deed given October 21, 1749, and recorded in D 482, Lancaster Co., on December 6, 1758. At that time Christian Graff, Husbandman, and Jacob Hertzler, weaver, agreed to pay four hundred and thirty-six pounds and eighteen shillings, to James Logan for four hundred acres of land, located in Donigal Township, Lancaster Co., Pa.

On May 8, 1751 this same Jacob Hertzler sold half of the above property to Michael Grafe for the sum of three hundred and fifty-five pounds. This deed was recorded on December 6, 1758.

It may have been the same Jacob Hertzler who wrote his will in German on April 22, 1793, in which mention is made of his deceased wife, Mary, his brother Christian, his present wife, Ann Elizabeth, and of John Hertzler, perhaps a son. At the time of death this Jacob Hertzler lived in Hempfield Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, so it may be somewhat uncertain whether the same Jacob Hertzler is meant.

The Hertzler Bibles

The Jacob Hertzler³, 8038, German Family Bible, printed in Reading, Pennsylvania, by Gottlieb Jungman, 1805, is now owned by Henry Stoltzfus of Elverson, Pennsylvania. Jacob was the son of Christian Hertzler², 8037, of Belleville, Pa., and a grandson of Bishop Jacob Hertzler.

Jacob Hertzler³, 4046, lived and died near Belleville, Mifflin Co., Pa. His family Bible has been preserved, and is now in the library of the Mennonite Historical Society at Goshen College. He was the son of John Hertzler², 2, of Womelsdorf, Berks County, Pa. and the grandson of Bishop Jacob Hertzler.

The Hertzler Mill¹

In an article on old mills in Lancaster County, Samuel Evans says the first grist mill above Rhoddy's was built by David Hays about 1730. John Hamaker purchased this mill, which was a log structure, and it was in 1796 used as a dwelling.

John Hertzler bought this farm about 1806 and built a new mill of brick, four stories high and about 70 feet square. He made a tunnel through solid rock from the dam to the new mill. After managing the mill for some years he sold to a Mr. Shenk. Shenk in turn sold to Michael Moore who made it into a roller process mill.

Elkhart County, Indiana

The first settlers in Elkhart County, Indiana, were members of the Church of the Brethren. They came to the area near where Goshen is now located in 1829¹. The first Amish Mennonites settled in Clinton Township, five miles east of Goshen, about 1840². The first Hertzler family to settle in this area was Levi Hertzler⁵, 2545. He was a Brethren farmer who moved here in 1847, coming from Smithville, Wayne Co., Ohio. His father, who was an Amish Mennonite farmer, formerly from Mifflin Co., Pa., lived in Wayne County, Ohio, Levi and his wife located on a homestead two miles northwest of Goshen, on the old Goshen-Elkhart road, and seems to have lived there till his death in 1903. His wife was Sarah Plank.

Wayne County, Ohio

Joseph Hertzler⁴, 3038, moved from Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, to Wayne County, Ohio, in 1823.

In the Register of Berks County, Pa., taxes, some information was given on the taxes paid by Jacob Hertzler during the early years he lived near Hamburg, Pennsylvania. He lived in Bern township after this township was "erected" in 1754.

Will of Jacob Hertzler², 7281

The oldest will, representing the Jacob Hertzler descendants, available to the editor, was that of Jacob Hertzler², 7281, second son of Bishop Jacob Hertzler. This document was signed on March 2, 1795, by Jacob Hertzler.

In the name of the Lord. Amen. I, Jacob Hertzler, a farmer in Bern Township, Berks County, State of Pennsylvania, find myself weak and sick in body, which makes me remember my mortality. Nevertheless I am of a sound mind, thanks be to the Lord for that. Therefore, I order all the estate I leave to be disposed of in the following manner: First: I recommend my soul to the hands of God who has given it to me, and my body that it may be brought to the grave in a Christian manner. Second: I give a full right to my executors to sell, and to oversign all my land forever: All my movable and unmovable goods I give under their hands and care, as they will find it good to act. Afterward my heirs shall divide it in equal shares. It is my will that my widow shall continue to keep house with the children, so long as the children are obedient and the executors will find that convenient.

Further do I give to my wife my bed and bedstead. Also one cow, a spinning wheel, and one equal share with my other heirs, if she remains a widow. If she marries again, then the half of this share shall fall back to the rest of the heirs, which heirs are Daniel, Jacob, David, John, and Barbara Hertzler.

Further, I order that my true friends Yost Yoder and Christian Stutzman shall be the executors of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have put my hand and seal thereto, on the second day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.¹

Another very old will was that of John Hertzler², 2, eldest son of Bishop Jacob Hertzler. This is given in complete detail because it represents the cultural and religious background of the Colonial period in American Life. It is to be noted that John Hertzler made his mark, rather than having signed his own name. This was probably due to infirmity, since he did sign his name to a deed issued on May 9, 1785, by him and Veronica his wife, upon the sale of some property to Jacob Rickenbaugh¹. We also know that Bishop Jacob Hertzler signed his own name when he landed in Philadelphia in 1749, and that his second son, Jacob Hertzler², 7281, also signed for himself when he declared his allegiance to the British government on arriving in Philadelphia, September 9, 1749.

Will of John Hertzler², 2.

Heidelberg township, Berks county¹. In the name of God, Amen. That I, John Hertzler, as I am old, and have not long to live, but with sound mind and good memory, thanks be to God therefor, and as I have taken into consideration the mortality of man, I do herewith make my last will and testament.

First. When my time is at an end, I deliver my soul into the hands of God, from whom it came, and my body to be buried in a Christian like manner, and order, into the earth from whence it was taken. But concerning my worldly estate, so shall my land be sold by my hereinafter named executors, in pieces or in the whole, as it will suit best at that time. But as I cannot see that it will suit to order, and bequeath, a widow seat on my land for my loving wife Veronica Hertzler, so I bequeath unto her the sum of four hundred pounds lawful money, of the first money which will be received, and she shall have full power to give or bequeath the same to whom she pleases.

Second. She shall have household furniture, one bed and bedstead and everything thereto belonging, two chests as she will, and linen, and any household furniture, as much as she will.

Third. One cow which she will, and the black heifer. The remainder of the household furniture shall be sold at Public Vendue.

Item. I give, bequeath, and order, that all my children; to wit, John Hertzler, Jacob Hertzler, David Hertzler, Christian Hertzler, Barbara Hertzler the wife of Jacob Reichenbach, Elizabeth Hertzler the wife of John Reichenbach, Veronica Hertzler the wife of Stephen Kurtz, Catherine Hertzler the wife of Christel Zug, shall all inherit alike in my property, as well in the movable as in the immovable.

What they or any of them have already received in my life time, with which they, or any of them, are charged in my book, that shall be charged to him or them in their share.

Item. And lastly I nominate and order my friends, John Weidman and Stephen Kurtz, as executors of this my last will and testament. And I do herewith totally disannul, and make void, any previous wills and testaments, which through me in any manner might have been made, hereby ratifying and confirming this and no other, as my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 23rd day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred.

The will of Isaac Hertzler⁴, 8119, is herewith given as an illustration of a more recent, nineteenth century instrument.

I, Isaac Hertzler, Sr., of the county of Berks, in the State of Pennsylvania, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, to wit:

First. It is my will, and I do order, that all my just debts and funeral expenses be duly paid and satisfied, as soon as conveniently can be, after my decease, out of the first monies that shall come into the hands of my executors, from any portion of my estate.

Second. It is my will that my son Isaac Hertzler's property shall be sold at a fair sale, and in case it does not bring the price he was to pay for it, the deficiency shall come out of my estate. He must keep the place in as good order as he got it, and not let it get poor and run down.

Third. I give, devise, and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Hertzler, in lieu of her dower, the interest of three thousand dollars, at five per cent per annum yearly, as long as she lives. After her death the principal and interest, are to be equally divided between my four children; viz, Joseph, Levi, Isaac and Lizzie, intermarried with Daniel Mast.

Fourth. I give and devise to my daughter Lydia's three children five hundred dollars each, in lieu of their mother's share at the last settlement.

Fifth. I give and devise to my son Joseph my desk at the death of myself and wife.

I also do direct, in case my wife should be in need of more money than the interest aforesaid, that my executors give to her what she needs of the principal. Also the use of all the household furniture and items, during her life.

And lastly, I nominate and appoint my son Joseph Hertzler, and Lewis Yoder, to be the executors of this my last will, hereby, by revoking all other wills, legacies, and bequests by me heretofore made, and declaring this and no other, to be my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this seventeenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Statistical Information on the Hertzler-Hartzler Families

Table I summarizes the size of families. It should be noted, however, that of the 1700 families without children, many were just recently married. The largest family was one of 19 children in the seventh generation.

Table II records that at least one family lives in each of the 48 states. Hertzler families also live in two American territories, in Washington, D. C., in five Canadian provinces, and in sixteen foreign countries. For 133 families the information concerning family residence was not available.

Table III is an attempt to show the number of counties in each state where Hertzler families live. Doubtless there are inaccuracies. In some states the total number of counties tabulated seems to be larger than the number of counties in the state. This discrepancy is only apparent, however, since the totals give the number of counties represented by family homes in each generation, and could possibly be duplicated in each of the other generations represented in that state. If the statistics are accurate, Ohio is the state where Hertzler families are most widely scattered, since in the eighth generation there are 45 counties where families were at home. Pennsylvania and Kansas also are other states where Hertzler families are widely scattered.

Table IV shows a summary of family vocations. 531 different occupations were stated in the family returns given. Doubtless there are numerous occupations which overlap, but no attempt was made to rearrange such duplications. For at least 222 families the occupation was not recorded.

Table V gives church affiliations, but lists only 7392 families. This is less than the total number, due to the fact that some families either were not affiliated with any church, or the information given was incomplete. 79 different denominational or undenominational religious bodies are listed and included in the tabulation.

Tables VI, VII, VIII, and IX give exact details for ordained church workers. The number of ministers is impressive. Ninety-three of the bishops represent four separate Mennonite groups, and the Church of the Brethren. Two are bishops in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and two represent other religious bodies. Regularly ordained ministers were members of 22 other Protestant Christian groups, in addition to the Mennonite, Brethren, and Friends denominations. 284 ministers were members of these three historic peace churches. This leaves 75 ministers divided among the 22 other churches listed.

These tables show that there are 456 ministers and bishops who are in the Hertzler family. Of course, not all are living today. The delayed interest in education, and in a trained ministry, are indicated by the fact that only 19 of these have had a complete theological training, leading to the Bachelor of Divinity degree. Two in addition hold the degrees of Doctor of Sacred Theology, which, at least in some cases, is an earned doctor's degree. Three hold the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. These degrees were granted by 18 different theological seminaries. The regular four-year college degree of Bachelor of Theology was earned by quite a few of these ministers, though this exact number was not tabulated. Some of the theological schools represented were Bonebrake, Bethany, Chicago, Drew, Garrett, Goshen, The Nazarene Seminary, Oberlin, Princeton, Southern Baptist, Union and Yale. No seminary trained ministers appeared until the sixth generation.

The number of nurses, dentists, osteopathic physicians, and medical doctors totals only 124. This again grows out of the fact that the family is still prevailingly rural. The first physician appeared in the fourth generation and the first nurse in the sixth. Many of the nurses were educated in smaller hospitals, in widely scattered areas, near the homes of the nursing candidates. Representative places are Lancaster, Pa., LaJunta, Colorado, Newton, Kansas, Rockingham County, Va., and Bloomington, Illinois. A very few attended more widely recognized schools, such as the nursing schools of Western Reserve University, Johns Hopkins University and Yale University. The medical men almost all received their education at excellent medical centers such as the University of Maryland, the University of Michigan, Temple University, Ohio State, Northwestern, the University of Minnesota, the University of Virginia and the University of Illinois. Sixteen trained engineers, in the seventh, eighth and ninth generations, were found in a hurried study of the family history, but these data were so inadequate that they were not included in the Table X. They represent electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, civil engineering and chemical engineering. Schools where the engineering education was received were the State University of Iowa, Ohio State, Carnegie Institute of Technology and Purdue University.

Advanced academic training, as evidenced by Master of Science, Master of Arts, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees, was not much in evidence. Twenty-four Ph.D. degrees were reported. The earliest were found in the sixth generation, though eleven appeared by the seventh generation. These details are shown in Table X.

Table XI outlines the number of marriages per family. These statistics indicate a total of 8820 marriages as compared with the supposed total of 8775 families. This is to be explained by the fact that additional families were inserted after the numbering was completed, in order to include late marriages. A few second, third, or fourth marriages also may have been counted, inadvertently, more than once. There were 8531 single marriages and 279 persons who married twice. Surprisingly there were seven persons in the family history who were married three times, and three who were married four times.

Table XI gives a detailed tabulation of the number of marriages per family, for each of the 10 generations of Hertzler families in which marriages occurred. Table XII gives a summary of the statistics gathered for multiple births. Table XIII tells the story of those of the family who have become college teachers. Included are those who were or are college librarians, business managers, and field workers, as well as those who were or are full time teachers. 34 American colleges and universities, extending east and west from Yale in Connecticut, to the University of California in Los Angeles, employed members of the family. North and south these colleges extended from North Dakota and Michigan to Virginia and Florida. Two foreign colleges were represented. These were the American College for Women, Beirut, Lebanon, and Robert College, in Istanbul, Turkey.

Albert Otis Tarr¹⁰, 61, represents the earliest illustration of a tenth generation marriage. There are here, also, the first eleventh generation children. There were no marriages in the eleventh generation.

Twins

The Encyclopedia Britannica informs us that twins occur once in 86 births in the United States. There are 235 sets of twins in the Hertzler-Hartzler line in the ten generations since the family arrived in Philadelphia in 1749. Of these, 12 represent two sets of twins to the same parents. There was one illustration of 3 sets of twins in the same family. The expectancy of twin births for the United States as a whole is 1.15%. For the Hertzler-Hartzler families the average is 2.68%, or somewhat over twice the national average.

Triplets

Following the Encyclopedia Britannica estimate of one set of triplets for 7396 births, the incidence of triplets in the Hertzler families occurs 3 1-3 times as often as expected. There are 4 cases of triplets in 8775 families. This is an average of one set of triplets for 2189 families.

The first group of triplets to occur are the three sisters, Ruby Viola, Ruth Elizabeth and Rhoda Delilah, born to Joel S. and Ida M. (Troyer) Fisher⁷, 1219, of Hubbard, Oregon, on January 7, 1910. These girls were the first children born in the family. There were six later children, all single births. One of the triplets died at birth, but the other two grew to womanhood, married, and now have children of their own. No cases of multiple births have occurred in the next generation. The parents are Mennonite farmers.

The second set of triplets in the Hertzler-Hartzler family were born on October 29, 1924, in the family of John S. and Barbara L. (Smoker) King⁸, 1355, of Bird in Hand, Pa. These children were Elizabeth S., Lovina S., and Lizzie S. King. Two of the sisters died on the same day, December 10, 1925, when the children were about six weeks of age. Lovina was still living, but unmarried, when the latest information was received. The parents are Old Order Amish Mennonite farmers. There are five additional children.

The third set of triplets were born to Eli D. and Mary A. (Farmwald) Troyer⁸, 5978, of Middlefield, Ohio. In this case there were eighteen children in the family. One set of twins and eight other single births preceded the birth of the triplets. These triplets were Alvin E., Alma E., Alta E., born April 8, 1933. The group is a family of Amish Mennonite farmers, and represents, except for one family, the largest number of children in the family line.

The fourth case of triplets occurred with the births, on August 23, 1949, of Patty Lea, Peggy Lou and William Henry, in the family of Henry Walter and Marian Louise (Eby) Longabaugh⁷, 7381, of Honey Brook, Pennsylvania. The near relatives were so overjoyed that the maternal grandmother wrote a poem, quoted as a footnote to family 7381, and had it published in the Honey Brook Herald. One of the infants died before quite reaching four months of age. The father is a member of the United Brethren church and is a carpenter and lumberman. In this case three single births preceded the coming of the triplets.

That the tendency to multiple births is slightly hereditary, is at least suggested by the fact that the editor of this volume found one illustration of multiple births running in five successive generations, beginning with the third generation of Hertzler descendants. The line was father, son, grandson, great-grandson, and great-granddaughter, as found in families 7282, 7284, 7310, 7316, and 7326. There were thirteen sets of twins and one set of triplets in these five generations in this one family line. Another interesting illustration is that of two sisters and one brother, in the same family, each having one pair of twins. These were Families 1893, 1894, and 1896. Complete details on twins and triplets are shown in Table XII.

Three brothers and sisters of one family marry three brothers and sisters of another family

Three children of the John I. and Anna Katherine (Yoder) Yoder⁷, 4129, family, of West Liberty, Ohio, married three children of the Earl M. and Barbara E. (Allgyer) Yoder⁷, 4565, family, of West Liberty, Ohio. Dwight Valentine Yoder⁸, 4132, married Olive Grace Yoder. Wilma Katherine Yoder⁸, 4133, married Roy Ellsworth Yoder. Gail Hubert Yoder⁸, 4134, married Ruth Ellen Yoder. The parents are Mennonite farmers.

Three of the nine living children of the Benjamin L. and Lydia (Stoltzfus) Stoltzfus⁸, 1306, family of Charlotte, Maryland, married three members of the Israel A. and Gertrude (Peachey) Swarey⁷, 5308, family, of Mechanicsville, Maryland. Susanne Stoltzfus⁹, 1312, married Joah H. Swarey. Moses Stoltzfus⁹, 1314, married Elizabeth Swarey. Lydia Stoltzfus⁹, 1315, married Christian M. Swarey. These families are Old Order Amish Mennonite farmers. They all formerly lived in the Kishacoquillis Valley, Mifflin Co., Pa., near Belleville. Due to crowded farming conditions and expensive farms, they moved to a farmed out area, where farms were cheaper. This land, as is usual among the Amish, is being built up into higher productivity.

Four members of one family marry four members of another family

The only illustration, that has come to the attention of the editor, of four brothers and sisters of one family marrying four brothers and sisters of another family is that of the children of David and Lydia F. (Zook), Graber⁸, 966, of Berne, Indiana. Four of the five living children of this family married four brothers and sisters of the Christian J. and Leah (Schwartz) Schwartz family, also of Berne, Indiana. Jonas Graber⁹, 967, married Margaret Schwartz. Amos Graber⁹, 968, married Leah Schwartz. Emma Graber⁹, 969, married Samuel Schwartz. Reuben Graber⁹, 971, married Anna Schwartz. All are Old Order Amish Mennonite farmers, and all live in the vicinity of Berne, Indiana.

Another quite unusual situation was that of three sisters of Mifflin Co., Pennsylvania, who each married different, and unrelated, or at least not closely related, men with the same name.

Barbara Hertzler³, 8247, who was born in Berks Co., Pa., married Christian Yoder of McVeytown, Mifflin Co., Pa. He was known locally as "Cooper" Christ Yoder. He was an Amish Mennonite farmer. Sarah Hertzler³, 8382, married Christian Yoder, occupationally known as "Butcher" Christ. They lived at Belleville, Mifflin Co., Pa. Esther Hertzler³, 8441, married "Kiefer" Christian Yoder. They were Amish Mennonite farmers who got the western fever, and moved to East Brook, Lawrence Co., Pa. Their children, and later descendants, moved to western New York state; to southern Michigan; to Wayne Co., Ohio; to Elkhart, Noble and Lagrange counties in Indiana; to Garden City, Cass County, Missouri; to Kentucky, Illinois, Kansas, Iowa, Oklahoma and Idaho.

Today a number of descendants of this family are living as far west as Hubbard, Oregon, Walla Walla, Washington, and Southern California.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS

Seven men, descendants of Jacob Hertzler, have been, or now are, presidents of Colleges:

Rev. John Ellsworth Hartzler⁷, 2914, was the second president of Goshen College, Goshen, Indiana, from 1913 to 1918. He was president of Bethel College, North Newton, Kansas, 1920-1921. In addition he was president of Witmarsum Theological Seminary, Bluffton, O., 1921-1931. Besides, he has had a distinguished career for many years, as professor of Systematic Theology at Hartford Theological Seminary, Hartford, Connecticut.

Rev. Henry Frank Reist⁷, 4051, was the fourth president of Goshen College, from 1919 to 1920. Previously he had been editor of The Christian Monitor, at Scottsdale, Pa. Later he was ordained as a Mennonite bishop at Premont, Texas.

Rev. Irvin R. Detweiler⁷, 5266, was the fifth president of Goshen College, Goshen, Indiana, from 1920-1922. His official title was acting president. He taught Bible for many years at Goshen College and at Bluffton College, Bluffton, Ohio. In addition he was a Mennonite pastor for a series of years in Indiana and in Illinois.

Rev. Jacob G. Meyer⁷, 7032, was president of Elizabethtown College, Elizabethtown, Pa., from 1921-24. He was president of Milton College, Milton, Wisconsin, from 1940-44. During the time between these two fields of service he was Professor of Education at Manchester College, North Manchester, Indiana.

Rev. Milo Franklin Kauffman⁷, 6794, a Mennonite bishop since 1938, was the second president of Hesston College and Bible School, Hesston, Kansas, from 1932-1951. Since retirement he is giving his time to evangelistic work.

Rev. William Alfred Stoltzfus⁶, 8377, has been president of American College for Women, Ras Beirut, Lebanon, since 1937. This followed a long previous career as a Presbyterian missionary teacher in Syria, from 1921 to 1937.

Rev. Roy D. Roth⁸, 2885, a minister in the Mennonite Church, near Peoria, Ill., since 1944, was elected the third president of Hesston College and Bible School, in 1951.

Address delivered by Reverend John E. Hartzler², 2914, of 1104 South Seventh St., Goshen, Indiana, August 25, 1949, commemorating the two hundredth anniversary of the coming of Bishop Jacob Hertzler to America.

THE SPIRIT OF JACOB HERTZLER

Introduction

1. The story. The known facts concerning our good progenitor, Jacob Hertzler, are very limited. Of a few things, however, we can be reasonably certain. He was born in 1703, in Switzerland, and of Swiss parentage. He was a farmer, a minister and bishop in the Amish branch of the Mennonite Church, being the first Amish bishop in America. His first wife died in Europe. They had one son John. Jacob later married a second wife, Catharine Ruegy, and by this marriage had two sons, Jacob and Christian, and one daughter, Fanny.

Jacob Hertzler, with his family, moved from Switzerland to the Palatinate in France, and after some years in France, because of religious persecution and the lack of religious freedom, moved on to America by way of Rotterdam, Holland, and Plymouth, England, on the ship St. Andrew, landing in Philadelphia on September 9, 1749.

From Philadelphia, Hertzler went on to Berne Township in Lancaster County, now Upper Berne Township, Berks County, about two miles west of Hamburg. Here he bought 182 acres of land from Richard and Thomas Penn at $1.25 per acre. That was in 1750. Then in 1752 he bought another 110 acres. In 1765 he bought 36 acres. In 1766 he bought 44 acres, and in 1773 just before the Declaration of Independence he bought another 30 acres, making a total of 404 acres.

In 1773 his wife Catharine died. On August 30 of the same year Jacob divided his land between his children. Then in 1786 Jacob himself died at the advanced age of 83.

Both Jacob and Catharine were buried in the Amish burying ground on the old home farm about two miles west of Hamburg, Pennsylvania. A modest tombstone has been erected in recent years.

2. The anniversary. Today, August 25, 1949, 200 years after the landing of our pioneer ancestor, we have record of nearly 9,000 families, and about 28,000 persons, descendants of Jacob Hertzler here in America. A most fortunate thing it was for us that our pioneer ancestor, Jacob Hertzler, left the old world when he did, to make his home in the new world, and to cast his lot with the great unexplored and undeveloped West. Today, August 25, 1949, we celebrate the 200th anniversary of his coming. Let us thank God that we are here rather than in Europe.

3. Writing history. The writing of accurate history is not always easy due to several things, namely: (1) Proper records are not always kept of events as they occur, and people forget; (2) Prejudice so easily influences the writer, he would like to believe that certain things are true in order to justify his accepted position; and (3) Intervening time often draws a curtain shutting out the past.

Due to the fact that the Mennonites and the Amish were a persecuted people, Church records which might fall into the hands of State authorities were simply and purposefully not kept. The Mennonites and the Amish met for worship secretly as a rule. They built no Churches at first; they met for worship in their homes. Even later when Churches were built they were built so as not to be easily detected. There were no bells, no musical instruments. Quiet was the word. No records, no publicity, was the order.

Historians often fill in blank spaces in history with imaginary or created events, which events later become tradition, even accepted history. It is not my purpose to "create" history concerning Jacob Hertzler. On the basis of the few things that we do know concerning world conditions at the time, and Hertzler's reaction to these conditions, we can make some safe, reasonable and justifiable deductions concerning The Spirit of Jacob Hertzler. This is my purpose.

I. Europe in the Eighteenth Century

1. The Roman Catholic Church. To understand and to interpret the eighteenth century in Europe it is necessary to turn back three or four centuries and note conditions and events leading up to the eighteenth.

From about 800 A.D., to about 1400 A.D. during the "Dark Ages," the Roman Church had gravitated to a very low ebb morally, religiously and spiritually. Repeated attempts were made by small spiritual groups such as the Albigenses and the Waldenses to reform the Church, but without success. John Huss (1369-1415), the Bohemian reformer, and professor in the University of Prague, made an earnest effort, only to find himself condemned as a heretic, and finally executed by being burned alive at the stake. For two centuries and more, efforts were made by spiritually minded people to Christianize the Roman Church with little or no success.

2. The Reformation. Then came the Reformation in Europe. Martin Luther (1483-1546), a professor in a German University and a minister in Wittenburg, is usually considered the hero of the Reformation. I have some serious doubts whether he really merits this distinction. Certainly Luther was an outstanding leader and deserves much credit. He was a man of faith, vision and courage. But Luther never would have accomplished what he did, had it not been that for two hundred years before him, hundreds of courageous Christians preached reform, paying for it with their lives. Luther built on hundreds of excommunicated, persecuted and executed Christians before him. The names of the real heroes of the Reformation we do not know.

It was Luther who led the attack on the evils of indulgences, salvation by works, the transfer of merit from saints to evil men in purgatory, and other immoral practices of the Church and her unbiblical doctrines. Men like Calvin, Zwingli and Menno Simons followed. But the foundation work of the Reformation was laid by devoted and courageous Christians during the two hundred years preceding these men. Out of the Reformation movement came the Reformed Church in Germany and Switzerland; the Anabaptist groups in Holland; the Presbyterian in France and Switzerland, and finally the Mennonites. The Mennonites were a radical group who desired to carry Church reforms further than Luther, Calvin or Zwingli would carry them.

3. The Anabaptists. In 1525 the civil authorities in Europe ordered all children baptized within eight days after birth. The Anabaptists rigorously opposed this order. There were some 70 congregations in and around Zurich. Their leaders were arrested and imprisoned. The Zurich authorities, with the approval of Zwingli, added death to imprisonment and banishment.

On January 5, 1527, Felix Manz became the first Anabaptist (Mennonite) martyr in Zurich, because of his faith in "believers baptism." The first "Mennonite" baptism was in 1525, though they were not called "Mennonites" at the time, Menno not having come into the group until 1535. After his coming in, the group took on the name "Mennonite." Menno Simons was trained for the Roman priesthood, but on seeing the light, joined himself with the peace-loving group of Anabaptists.

4. The Mennonites. Among the Anabaptists, there being some forty different groups, there was a large peace-advocating group. They believed that war was definitely unchristian; that war was in direct contradiction to the simple teaching of Jesus Christ, and that no Christian could have any part in war. It was this group with which Menno joined himself. Menno was not the founder of Mennonitism. Menno was a joiner.

The Mennonites believed in adult baptism on confession of faith. They opposed infant baptism. They believed that the bread and the cup at the Lord's table were not the body and blood of Jesus Christ; these only represented the body and the blood of Jesus Christ. They believed in the right and the exercise of the individual conscience; the right to interpret the Holy Scriptures as the Holy Spirit may dictate to every individual. They believed that the State was in no wise qualified to dictate religious faith.

For this faith the Mennonites were persecuted on all sides. In-as-much as the Roman Catholic Church was the State Church, disobedience to the Church meant disloyalty to the State. Hence both State and Church carried on the persecutions. The Mennonites refused to baptize their children, and this meant disobedience to the State. The Mennonites were "heretics." They were burned at the stake. Since the Roman Church believed that God would burn them eternally in the lake of fire and brimstone, the persecutors thought that a little toasting here and now would certainly meet with Divine approval.

5. The Amish. The Amish are a branch of the Mennonites who owe their origin to one Jacob Amman, a Mennonite minister of decidedly conservative views, who lived during the latter part of the seventeenth century, and the early part of the eighteenth, near Bern, Switzerland. In 1693 Jacob Amman, with his brother Ulrich, visited the Mennonite Churches in Switzerland and Alsace, urging the literal practice of the doctrine of "avoidance," or "shunning." (I Cor. 5:11).

Differing with many of his brethren on this doctrine, Amman took it upon himself to declare those who differed with him as excommunicated from the Church. The controversy grew bitter. Amman and most of his party left Bern and went to Alsace, which later became the home of the Amish. In 1711 the Amman party offered reconciliation, but the Mennonites did not accept. The division exists in America to this day. Jacob Hertzler was a member of the Amish branch, though evidently had nothing to do with the original controversy.

II. To America

Just when the first Amish came to America is not entirely certain. There was a family by the name of Yoder, (Jotter) of the Amish faith, that came about 1714, and settled in Berks County, Pennsylvania. The father of this family of 10 died at sea.

The first permanent settlement of Mennonites in America was in 1683 in Germantown, though there were individual Dutch Mennonite traders here before that. Cornelius Plockhoy, a liberal minded Dutchman, and of Mennonite descent, attempted a Mennonite settlement on Delaware Bay as early as 1662.

Jacob Hertzler was 15 years of age when William Penn died (1718), and he came to America 31 years after Penn's death. In the "Concessions and Agreements of the Proprietors, Freeholders and Inhabitants of West Jersey" of March, 1677,—mostly written by William Penn,—the spirit of liberty was greatly released. In these "Concessions" there was granted complete freedom of conscience, security from illegal arrest, trial by jury, control of taxes by a representative body, election by secret ballot, and complete freedom of worship. No one was required to contribute anything to any religion in which he did not believe, and any Christian professing man was eligible to hold government office. To Jacob Hertzler such a land furnished great advantages.

1. Freedom of religion. The doctrine of religious freedom was basic in Anabaptism and in early Mennonitism. It was the desire for this freedom that brought the Mennonites and the Amish to America. In the Palatinate, as well as in other parts of Europe, they were denied the privilege of ownership of land. They could be only tenants and laborers. Special taxes, along with other limitations, were placed upon them. They were not allowed to bury their dead in Church cemeteries. In America these conditions did not exist. America was yet unspoiled; most of it unexplored, certainly undeveloped, with heavy forests covering most of the eastern half. The Hertzlers were here in time to witness the "Birth of a Nation."

2. Freedom of choice. In recent years we have heard much about the "Four Freedoms,"—freedom from want; freedom from fear; freedom of speech, and freedom of worship. All very good, but a man can have all of those and be in jail. The great American freedom has always been freedom of choice, a freedom which we are in serious danger of losing right now. What choice has the farmer, the industrialist, or the taxpayer, along with our Washingtonian would-be dictators, labor leaders and exploiters?

Rollie had the big apple and Sherman had the small one. Said mother: "Rollie, didn't I often tell you that you should give your little brother his choice?" Said Rollie: "That is just what I did; I told Sherman that he could take the small one or do without." That is about the choice that we have in America today. Not so in the days of Jacob Hertzler.

When Jacob Hertzler came to America there was freedom of choice. A hard life in many ways certainly. But a man could stand erect and say: "This is my country; this is my farm; this is my business, and I shall choose my own course and my own program." Jacob Hertzler saw this advantage in America and he was wise enough and courageous enough to accept it.

3. Freedom of enterprise. In the early days in this country there was entire freedom in the choice of enterprise. A man could choose his own vocation without being bound to the vocation of his fathers. The Mennonites and the Amish were always an industrious, honest, and hard-working people. Thrift, hard work, and careful saving, have always been their philosophy. Having been driven from the cities in Europe through persecution, they took to the rural areas and the mountains, taking their living out of the "good earth." As a result the Mennonites and the Amish became farmers, a rural people, and to this day the majority are still farmers, much to their credit. Jacob Hertzler saw the advantages of the open country in the new world and he came in and possessed it.

4. Freedom from military service. The Church and the State being inseparable in Europe, meant that Churchmen were liable for military service. The Mennonites and the Amish were unalterably opposed to military service on the basis of the teaching of Jesus. In America there was no conscription, no compulsory military service. The Mennonites and the Amish were ready to die for the good of others, but they were not willing to kill their fellowmen, or to take away from a man that which he could never return, namely, his life. This was one reason why Jacob Hertzler came to America.

5. Freedom of worship. The doctrine of religious freedom and freedom of religious conscience implied freedom in worship. Devotion to God and the worship of God was the cornerstone of Mennonite and Amish faith. To worship God as one's conscience may direct was basic in the faith of these simple, God-fearing people. In America men were free from kings, popes, priests and religious dictators; men were free to worship as they pleased. Here the Bible was an open book for every man, with the right to read and to interpret it. Here men could worship when and where they pleased. Jacob Hertzler knew this and he made this land his choice, fortunate for all of us.

III. The Spirit of Jacob Hertzler

I repeat, definite information concerning Jacob Hertzler is very limited. Even so, it is not difficult, on the basis of what we do know, to make some fairly accurate deductions relative to the spirit of our worthy progenitor. Four things, it seems to me, we may rightly conclude concerning the spirit of Jacob Hertzler.

1. The spirit of adventure. This is always a good spirit and Jacob Hertzler had it. Crossing the Atlantic in those days, in a sail boat, was an adventure. They crossed the Atlantic in those days, in boats that you and I would hesitate to use to cross the Juniata River. To follow an old path and stay there is easy. To break a new trail and get there, is something more difficult. Jacob Hertzler adventured on a new trail and today you and I are reaping the reward of that adventure.

It was the spirit of adventure that made America. Vision plus adventure, is what we mean by faith, and faith will make any man great. It will make a nation great. It is a matter of serious regret that in our United States in recent years, we have almost eliminated the spirit of adventure, by discrediting business success; by placing a premium on intolerance; by our system of double taxation, and by penalizing private enterprise and individual initiative. The Hertzler spirit is the spirit of adventure.

2. The spirit of the pioneer. A pioneer is one who goes ahead, and leads the way for others coming after him. The pioneer is an explorer, an experimenter in any department of human enterprise. The "routineer" is the one who follows the well beaten path, with no thought of blazing new trails. In the days of Jacob Hertzler, Europe was slave to routine. There was little initiative, little originality and little adventure. Most people were content with things as they were. The spirit of the pioneer is never content with present accomplishments. For the pioneer the boundary line of present attainments is never far enough. Little concerned is the pioneer with the bridges that are burned behind him. His concern is the building of bridges on the trail ahead. The spirit of Jacob Hertzler was the spirit of the pioneer.

3. The spirit of thrift. Jacob Hertzler bought land from Richard and Thomas Penn for $1.25 per acre. That seems easy. Today that same land would sell for perhaps $300.00 or $400.00 per acre. To acquire 404 acres at that time, and at that price, required the same spirit and practice of thrift, as it would under present economic conditions. Jacob and Catharine Hertzler were not strangers to thrift, hard work, and careful saving. This has always been a Mennonite and an Amish trait. One of the essential provisions in William Penn's constitution was that no child should be brought up in idleness, but that all should learn some useful trade. This was the spirit of Jacob Hertzler.

4. The spirit of godliness. The Anabaptists, the predecessors of the Mennonites and the Amish, were a God-fearing people. To honor and obey God was always before honor and obedience to man. Jacob Hertzler lived and acted in this spirit. I have little difficulty in visualizing Bishop Jacob Hertzler as a saintly, dignified and modest man, a firm believer in God, and with an earnest desire to conform to His will. It has been 200 years since this pioneer saint, our progenitor, came to America, but his spirit of godliness lives among us to this day.

Conclusion

Ladies and Gentlemen, members of the Hertzler family, I deem it a great honor as well as a responsibility to be numbered among the descendants of Jacob Hertzler. In a few hours the celebration of this two hundredth anniversary will pass into history. May the spirit of Jacob Hertzler—the spirit of adventure, the spirit of the pioneer, the spirit of thrift, and the spirit of godliness, never depart from this family.

Jacob Hertzler long since has finished his good work of transplanting a family from the Old World to the New. He has gone to his reward. Our days are swiftly passing. Sooner or later each of us will pass over the great divide and join our progenitor in another world. Every sunset is the seal of The Eternal set on the document of passing time. Soon each of us too must lay aside unfinished, the picture of life that we have been painting.
